

Petal Pushers Have fun picking and mixing floral-print patterns. Be bold, and pile them on! CLOCKWISE, FROM TOP LEFT: Blue glass candlestick by Mikasa. Floral-patterned porcelain charger by Kenzo. Floral-patterned stoneware mugs, bowl and dessert plate, all from the Epoch Collection by Noritake. Pink-rimmed frosted glass dessert bowl from Mariposa. Stainless dinner fork and dinner spoon, with pearlized pink and aqua handles, by Rosanna. Hand-blown pink glass by Mariposa. Turquoise porcelain espresso cup by Kenzo. Cotton place mat by Kim Seybert. Yellow end table by Maine Cottage. Gingham fabric (in background) by Pine Cone Hill.

Water Colors Tranquil blue hues set a serene tone to your table. FROM TOP: Oval hand-painted glass serving dish from the Aquatica Collection by Annieglass. On serving dish: Turquoise bead and shell napkin ring, lime and fuchsia napkin ring and silk organza napkin, all by Kim Seybert. Turquoise-handled stainless dinner spoon and dinner fork by Oneida. Aluminum shell-handled spreader by Mariposa. Hand-painted salad dishes from the Aquatica Collection by Annieglass. Green beaded palm leaf place mat (top right) by Kim Seybert. Stemless wineglasses by Spiegelau. Blue embossed-glass candle tray (top left) from The Roma Downey Collection by Home Interiors.

Bermuda Bliss

Find inspiration in pink-sand beaches, vivid blue water and brightly colored tropical flowers, to set a warm, inviting table.

Connect the Dots There's nothing fresher or livelier than polka dots in cheerful colors. Mix this sweet pattern with solid hues and simple designs, for a look that's long on charm. FROM TOP: Polka-dot glasses and bowls, and pink and green dinner plates, all by European Sources Direct. Fish-patterned blue dinner plate by Rolf Cut Crystal. Salmon and lime champagne flute by Union Street Glass. Green-handled steak knife, designed by Jean-Michel Wilmotte for Euroblade. Stainless dinner fork by Oneida. Pink bud vase by Magenta. Lotus flower napkin ring and hibiscus-patterned linen napkin by Kim Seybert.